Chef Joseph McFadden of An Tobar Authentic Irish Pub and Grill Shines at Flavors of the NFL Alumni Competition

Orlando, FL – Chef Joseph McFadden of An Tobar, authentic Irish Pub and Grill and his NFL Alumni Sous Chef Seneca McMillan (Green Bay Packers) finished strong at the Flavors of the NFL Alumni competition.

Event attendees enjoyed the 2016 AFC/NFC Championship games on January 24, 2016 at Regal Oaks Resort, where NFL Alumni partnered with world class chefs from An Tobar, Coastal Grill & Bar and more to create the best game day dish to benefit local charity One Heart for Women and Children. Chef McFadden and Sous Chef Seneca McMillan (Green Bay Packers) finished in the top 4 and clearly a fan favorite. Jennifer Daskevich, Managing Partner at Coastal Grill & Bar and World Sandwich Champion shared, “Chef McFadden’s dish was a fan favorite and highly regarded by competing chefs. I was extremely impressed with Chef McFadden’s creativity and execution of his pork loin and puff pastry with a scotch berry sauce. It was truly inspired.”

A highly experienced and accomplished chef, McFadden came to An Tobar from Oysters Restaurant, the 2014 Best Restaurant in Northern Ireland. Chef McFadden shares, “I love the art involved in producing top quality food, from the time it is delivered to when it is served to the customer. Flavors of the NFL Alumni was a great way to showcase great food and support a worthy cause”. Chef McFadden is creating a custom authentic Irish Pub and Grill menu along with tasty American fare that will pair well with An Tobar’s extensive Scotch, Bourbon and Irish Whiskey selections.

An Tobar, one of Florida’s largest Irish pubs, is located at Sheraton Orlando North at 600 N. Lake Destiny Drive at I-4. Translated as “The Well” in Gaelic, An Tobar is truly authentic. From its solid-wood, 60-foot bar to its tables, chairs and bar stools, were assembled in Dublin, taken apart and shipped to Orlando where they were re-constructed by a crew of Irish workers. The pub’s lively atmosphere reflects a Dublin streetscape with three levels of seating ensuring everyone has a great spot to dine, enjoy a tasty meal with a favorite libation or watch a match on one of An Tobar’s big-screen TVs.
